
MAIRS AND POWER FUNDS

PRIVACY POLICY

Mairs and Power Funds, in having created a relationship with its shareholders, has established a policy which sets forth the commitment of the Funds to maintain a shareholder's private information in a confidential manner, securing personal and financial data.

In the normal process of doing business with its shareholders, Mairs and Power Funds collects nonpublic personal information about its shareholders. This information is collected from the application or other forms, correspondence, or conversations, including but not limited to, account number and balance, payment history, parties to transactions, cost basis information, and other financial information.

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our shareholders, past or present, to nonaffiliated third parties, such as consultants or accountants, except as authorized by shareholders or required by law. Third parties that perform administrative services on the Funds' behalf, such as our transfer agent and custodian, will receive nonpublic personal information about our shareholders. These entities will use this information only to provide required services for shareholders, and are not permitted to share or use this information for any other purpose. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard our nonpublic personal information. We will not under any circumstances disclose any information, public or nonpublic, about our present or former shareholders to any third parties for the purpose of marketing.

In the event that shareholders hold shares of the Fund(s) through a financial intermediary, including, but not limited to, a broker-dealer, bank, or trust company, the privacy policy of such financial intermediary governs how nonpublic personal information would be shared with nonaffiliated third parties.
