(1) Not annualized

(2) Performance information shown includes the reinvestment of dividend and capital gain distributions, but does not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Fund distributions or the redemption of Fund shares.

(3) The Composite Index reflects an unmanaged portfolio of 60% of the S&P 500 TR Index and 40% of the Barclays Government/Credit Bond Index. It is not possible to invest in an index

(4) The S&P 500 TR Index is an unmanaged index of 500 common stocks that is generally considered representative of the U.S. stock market. It tracks both the capital gains of a group of stocks over time and assumes that any cash distributions, such as dividends, are reinvested back into the index. It is not possible to invest directly in an index.

(5) Bloomberg Barclays Government/Credit Bond Index is a broad based flagship benchmark that measures the non-securitized component of the U.S. Aggregate Index. It includes investment-grade, U.S. dollar-denominated, fixed-rate Treasuries, government-related and corporate securities. It is not possible to invest directly in an index.

Dividend Yield is a dividend expressed as a percentage of current share price.

ETF stands for exchanged-traded fund.

All investments have risks. The Fund is designed for long-term investors. Equity investments are subject to market fluctuations and the Fund's share price can fall because of weakness in the broad market, a particular industry or specific holdings. Investments in small and midcap companies generally are more volatile. International investing risks include among others political, social or economic instability, difficulty in predicting international trade patterns, taxation and foreign trading practices and greater fluctuations in price than U.S. corporations. The Balanced Fund is subject to yield and share price variances with changes in interest rates and market conditions. Investors should note that if interest rates rise significantly from current levels, bond total returns will decline and may even turn negative in the short-term. There is also a chance that some of the Balanced Fund's holdings may have their credit rating downgraded or may default.

The objective of the Mairs & Power Balanced Fund is to provide capital growth, current income and preservation of capital.

The holdings mentioned herein represent the following percentages of the total net assets of the Mairs & Power Balanced Fund as of September 30, 2018: 3M Company 2.74%, Hormel 2.31%, Land O' Lakes 0.69%. All holdings in the portfolio are subject to change without notice and may or may not represent current or future portfolio composition. The mention of specific securities is not intended as a recommendation or offer for a particular security, nor is it intended to be a solicitation for the purchase or sale of any security.
